

We're Hiring CHIEF SUSTAINABILITY OFFICER (CSO)

Under Project Pahang Ecology Research Center (PERC)
Office of Deputy Vice Chancellor Assets and Infrastructure Development

REQUIREMENTS:

- A minimum of Bachelor's degree in Environmental Science, Sustainability, Environmental Studies or related field
- Certification by business standards company for Quantifying the Carbon Footprints of Products under ISO14067 and Road to Carbon Neutrality under PAS2060 or any equivalent certifications will be an added benefit
- Minimum of 3 years in a managerial capacity
- Ability to work independently and handle a variety of ESG matters in a fast-paced and crossed cultured environment

JOB DESCRIPTION:

- Responsible for a company's environmental impact, resources and plans
- Help UCYP evaluate the current impact on the environment and determine how to increase their sustainable practices in the future for Pahang
- Draft and implement sustainable organizational policies that address environmental concerns
- Evaluate effectiveness of sustainability initiatives, suggests an executes required adjustments
- Conduct research to identify environmental and sustainability concerns, interests, and issues
- Creating documents for environmental project funding, such as grant applications and proposals
- Researching the latest trends, practices and news related to sustainability
- Educating employees on environmental challenges and ways they can practice sustainability, such as recycling or minimizing their energy usage
- Research the latest ESG issues, concerns, practices and staying updated on local and global legislation related to sustainability

SKILLS REQUIRED:

Communication

- Communicate through a variety of methods, such as emails, grant proposals and educational outreach programs
- Communicate frequently with other employees at their company and with professionals outside their organization, such as government officials, investors and customers

Creative Thinking

- Devise innovative ways to incorporate sustainability into a business's regular operations

Up-To-Date on Environmental Issues

- Remains informed on the latest environmental studies, news and trends so that they can determine the best strategies to help their business practice sustainability

Critical Thinking Abilities

- Use critical thinking skills to help them evaluate a company's existing sustainability practices and devise plans to improve those practices or develop new ones

Policy Engagement and Interpretation

- Familiar with government regulations about noise pollution, proper sewage disposal and related practices
- Organize events or campaigns that help improve environmental regulations

Closing date :

31 MARCH 2023

Submit your resume to:

recruitment@ucyp.edu.my cc to
AIDOFFICE@ucyp.edu.my